balling gun

For administration of boluses or balls for large animals

drenching bottle

For administration of drenches for large animals

drenching pit

For administration of drenches for horse

Stomach tube

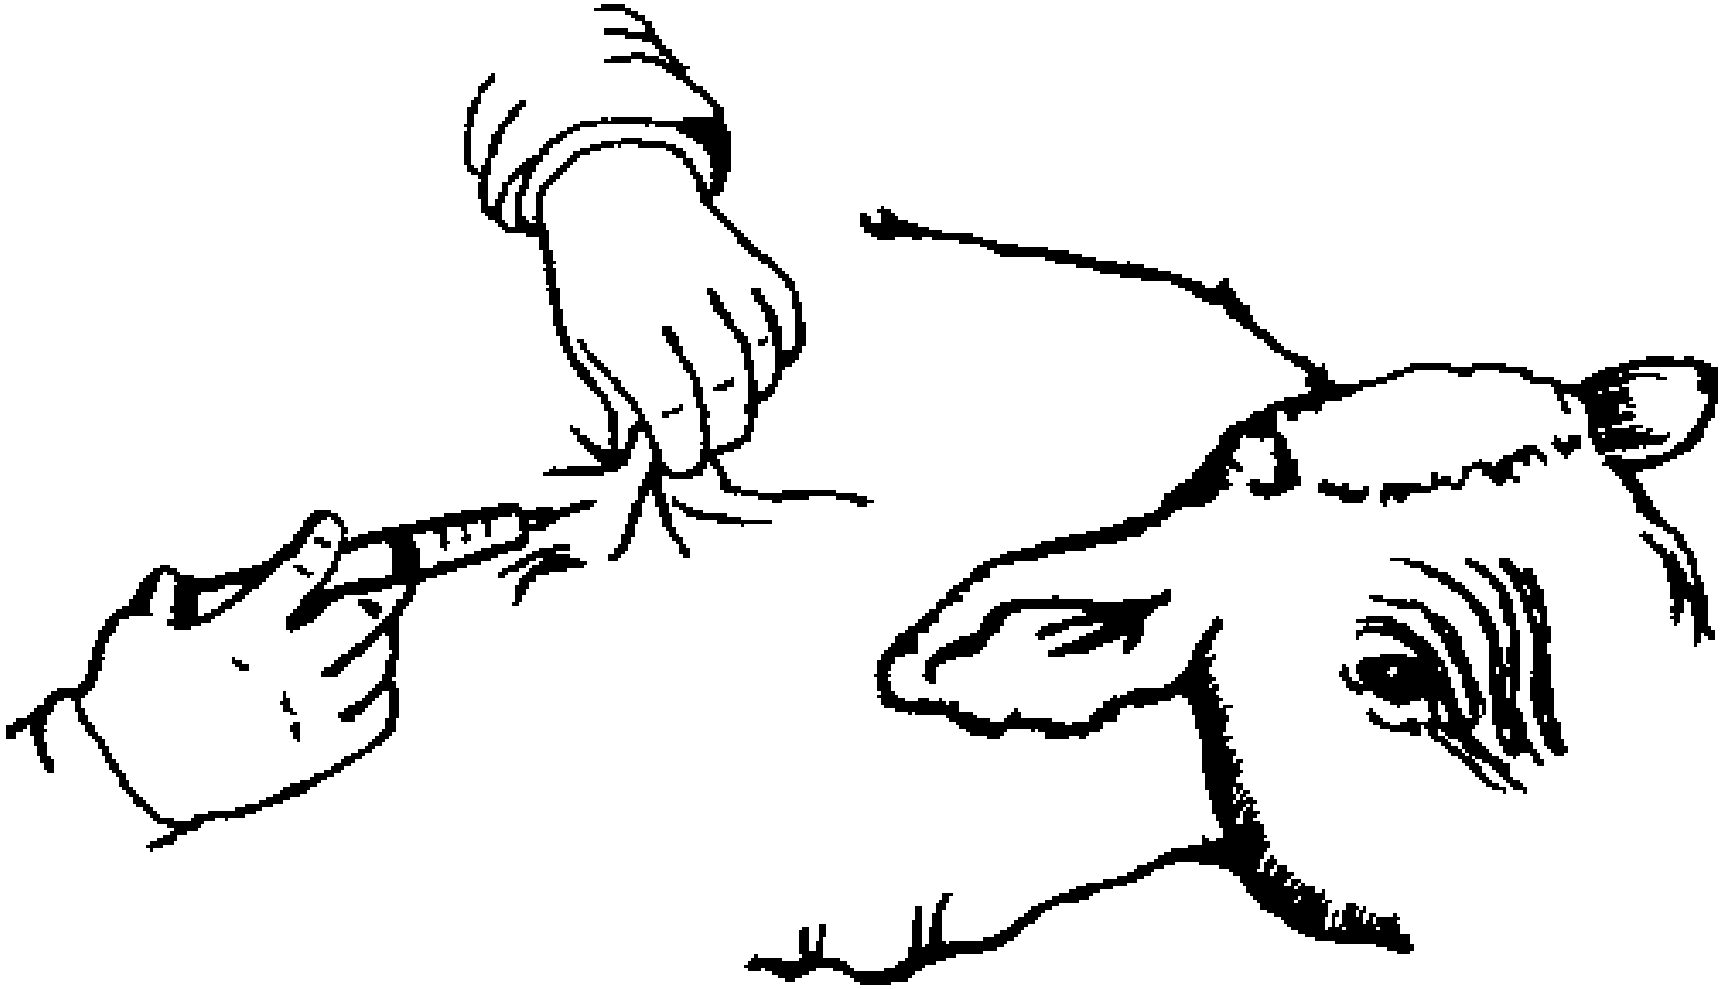
For administration of drenches for horse and cattle and treatment of tympani and choking

drenching spoon

For administration of drenches for dog

Trocar and cannula
For intraruminal injection

Subcutaneous injection in cattle in the neck



Subcutaneous injection in sheep behind the elbow joint

Subcutaneous injection in cat in the scruff of the neck

Site of intramuscular injection in cattle in hind quarter

Site of intramuscular injection in dog intravenous injection in horse in the jugular vein

intravenous injection in poultry in the wing vein

Intraperitoneal injection in rat intra mammary injection in cattle

Rectal enema: used for treatment of constipation

Cradle: used to prevent horse from licking of blister

Three quarter shoe:

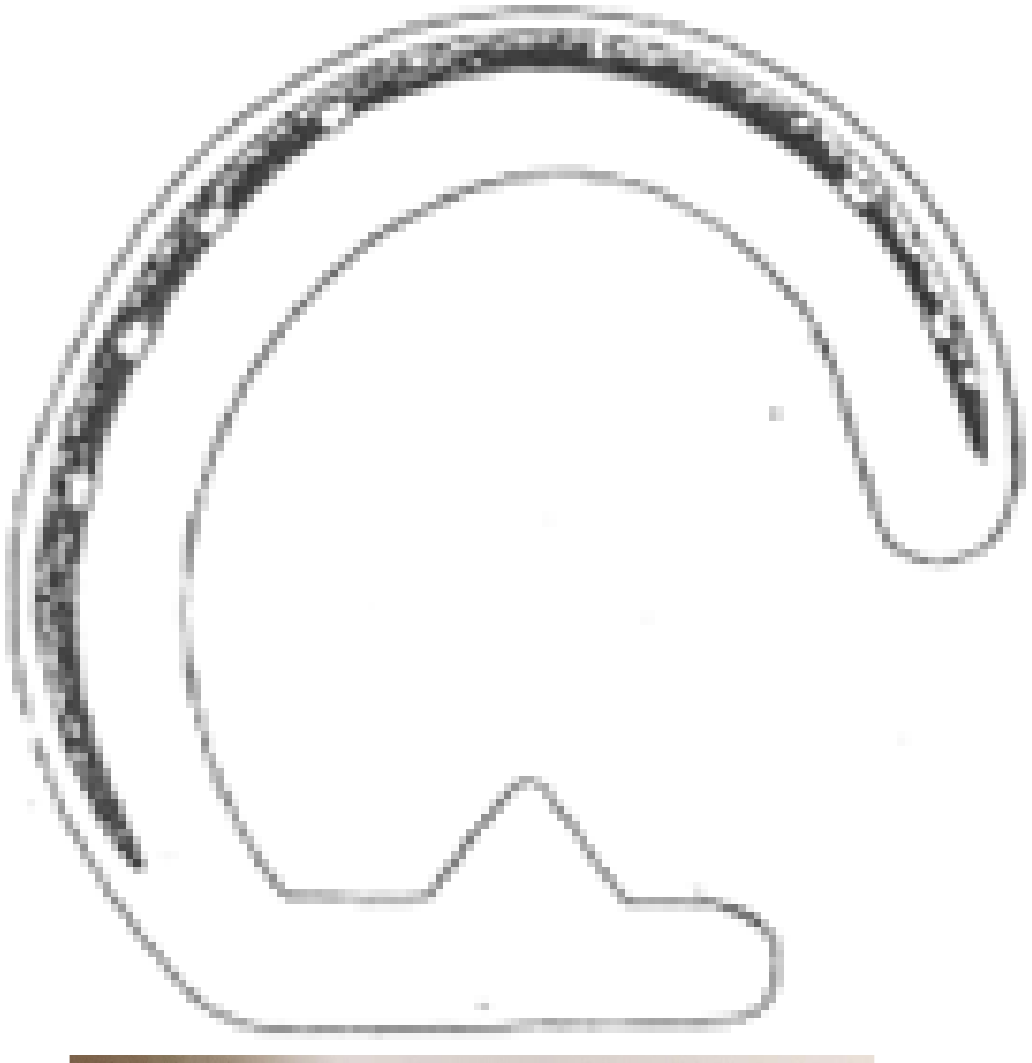
- Used for corns and capped elbow.

Bar shoe:

- Used for weak heels, atrophy of the frog and infection of bars.

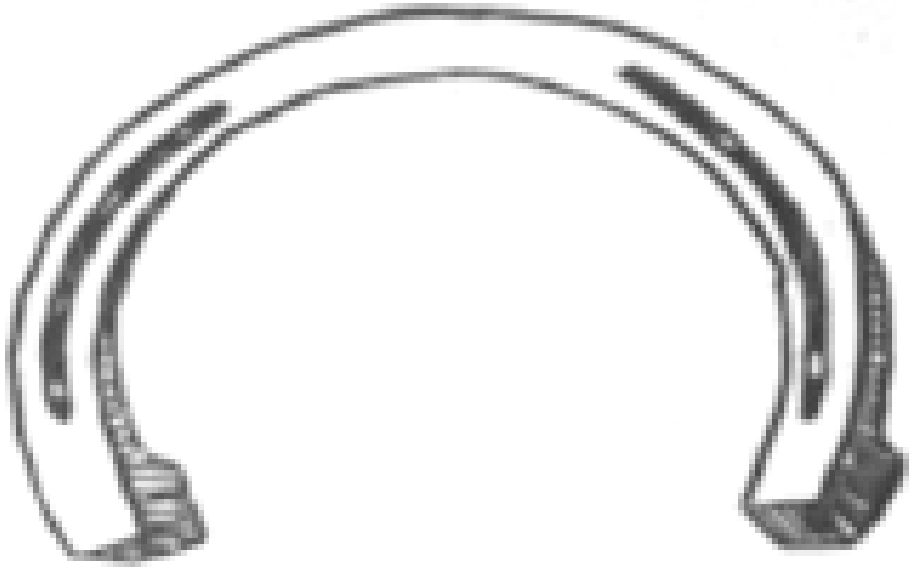
Three-quarter bar shoe:

- Used in corns, weak heels, atrophy of the frog, contracted heels and capped elbow.



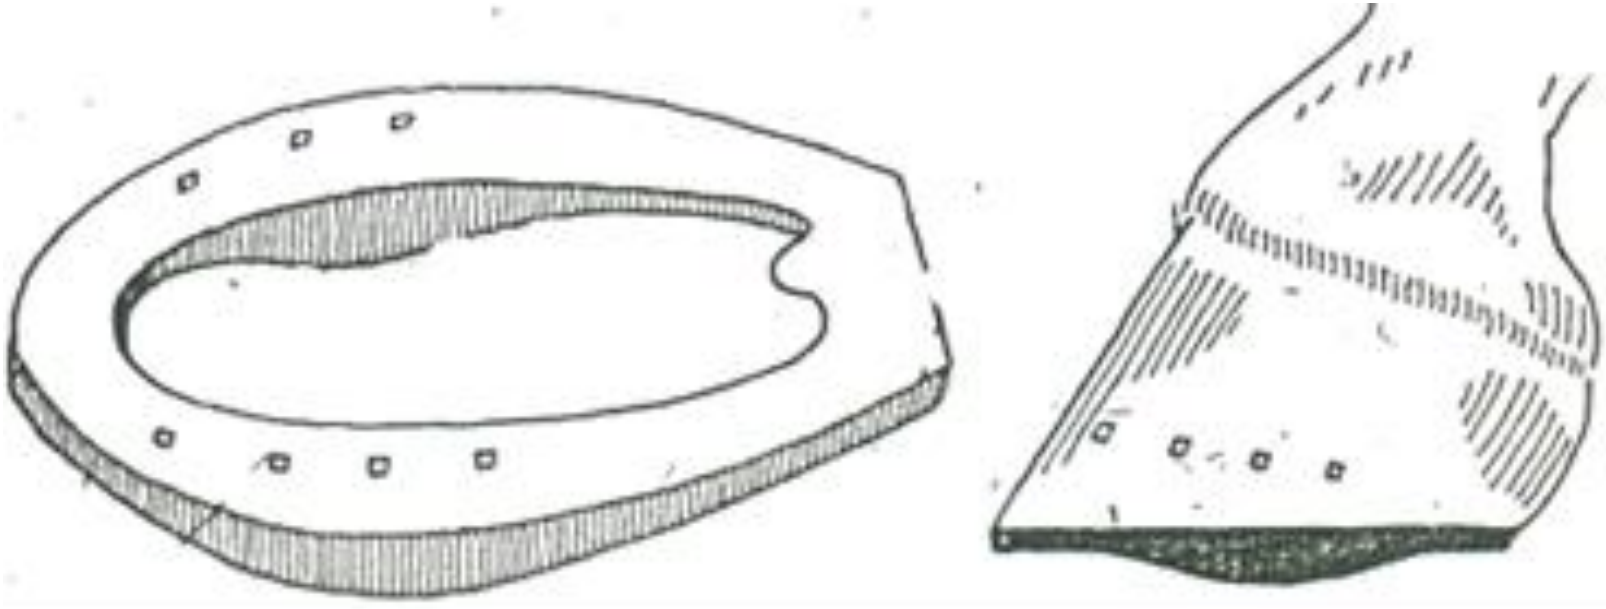
Calkins shoe:

- For draught horses.
- Used for treatment of chronic tendinitis.



Rocker's bar shoe:

- Used for chronic laminitis and dropped sole.

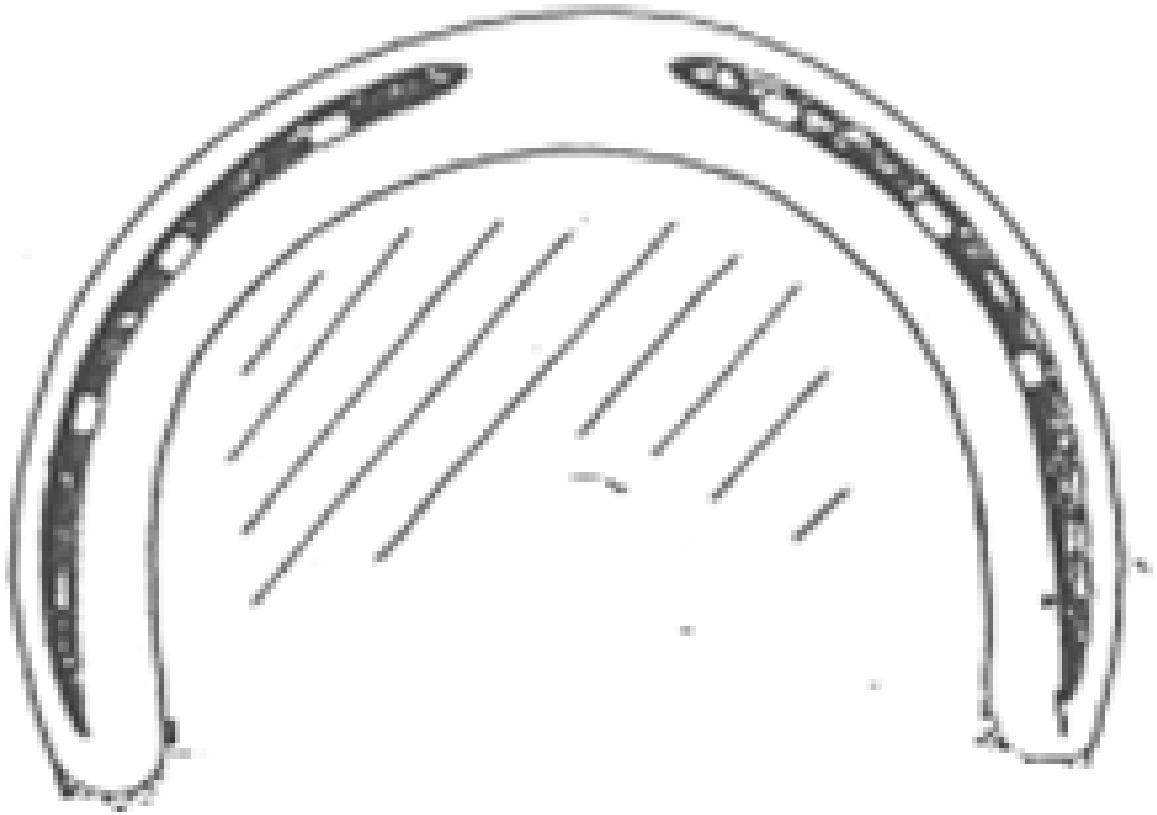


Speedy cutting shoe:

- To prevent the speedy cutting.

Half or tip shoe:

- Used for foal for growth of frog and heel.
- Before transportation by month for development of heel.



Sausage boot:

- Put at pastern to prevent capped elbow.

Feather edged shoe:

- In case of atrophy of one side.

Side weighed shoe:

- In case of atrophy of one side.

Donkey shoe: used for shoeing of donkey

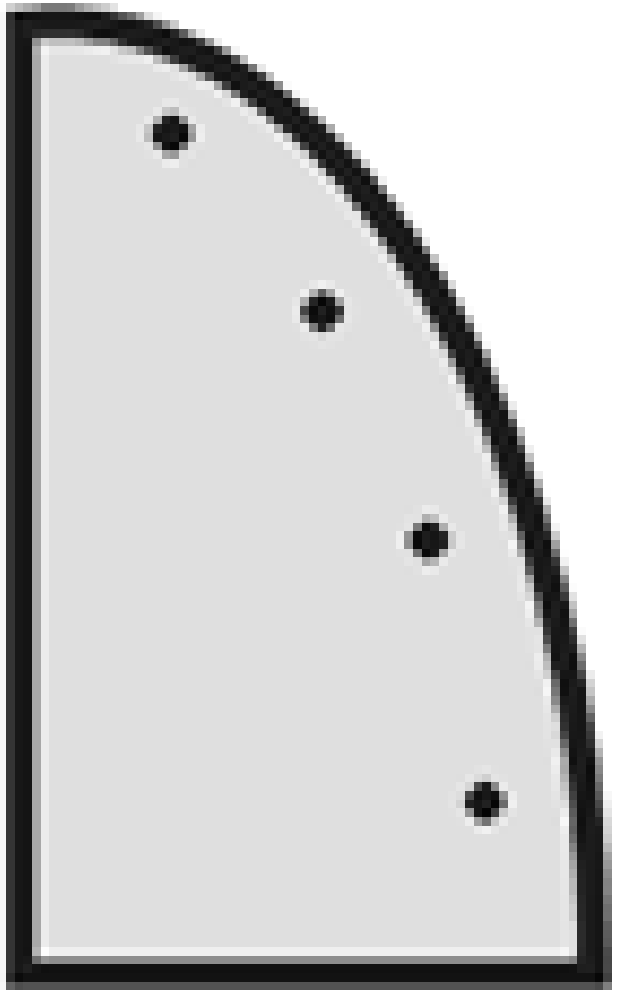
Cattle tip shoe: used for shoeing of cattle



Three-quarter rasp:

- Used for lower the wall and level bearing surface.

Toeing knife:

- Used for cutting of the overgrown portion of wall.

Drawing knife:

- Used for lower the wall and remove ragged portion.

Driving hammer:

- Used for drawing the wrongly driven nail.

Hoof cutter:

- Used for cutting of the overgrown portion of wall.

Pincers:

- Used for drawing the clenches.

Buffer:

- Used for cutting or kneeling up clenches before removing shoe.